Professional organisations in the area of engineering, construction and education generally require IELTS certification as proof of language proficiency, as do many universities and immigration authorities.

Punctual attendance for the whole lesson is required and arriving more than 20 minutes late will be counted as an absence. In the case of an illness or family emergency, the student must present a valid excuse, such as a doctor's note.

For passing the course students are required to pass the midterm test and the final test.
