General Subject Description

The purpose of this course is to outline the main streams of development throughout the ages and to interpret those adopting present concepts of architecture. In lectures, the theoretical and historical relations of architecture are investigated from a general historical, artistic, and architectural, on occasion structural aspect. Through presenting the main spiritual movements and social changes in Europe, and their influence on architectural approach through characteristic buildings and sculptor's studios, students discover the concept of architecture and the different types of drawings characteristic of this era.

Learning Outcomes

This subject is a follow up course in the history and theory of architecture and summarizes ancient Christian events and architecture in the Middle Ages based on monumental architecture. The objective of the subject is to present the mainstreams of development, the evolution of medieval architecture and intends to improve knowledge of theoretical and historical aspects of architecture.

Subject content

The following topics are covered in the lectures: spread of Christianity, sacred and profane architecture in the Middle Ages, outstanding architectural monuments of Gothicism in Europe and Hungary, architecture of the Renaissance, architecture of the Contra-Reformation and Roman baroque; manor-house and garden architecture of French baroque.

Task description

Students must draw two simple drawing tasks and one complex, so called semester drawing. The simple drawing tasks should be drawn during lectures. The tasks are always related to the previously presented lectures of the semester e.g. drawings or sketches about a building. All drawings should be prepared on A/4 size draft papers. After finishing the drawing task all pages should be immediately photographed and turned in in Microsoft Teams. The semester drawing should be drawn at home. This task is about a single building. Students have to draw a perspective and if it is possible a floor plan and a section or façade of a building. The buildings will be chosen by the lecturer. The drawing should be prepared on a draft paper in the size A/3. Any kind of manual technique can be used, but pencil is preferred. The use of computer is not allowed.

The semester drawing should be digitally submitted. Students must take a picture with a camera about the drawing. At the time when the picture is taken the lens of the camera should be positioned above the center of the drawing, perpendicular to the sheet, otherwise the lens will distort the real view of the drawing. The final picture should be saved as a JPG file. The picture should be uploaded to the Microsoft Teams group of this course, into the appropriate folder in the General channel. Name of the files should be: Name of the student_Name of the building.jpg.
